

STAGGERED REST DAYS

MAIN CONTRACTORS

WHAT IS STAGGERED REST DAYS?

In pre-COVID days, most workers rest on Sunday. Staggered rest days is a new measure by MOM and BCA to spread out the number of workers exiting their dormitories for non-work purposes more evenly across the week. This is necessary to minimize the risk of cross-infections during the COVID-19 pandemic, and it requires all of us to adopt new practices to protect our built environment workforce, our families, and the larger community as a whole.

Staggered rest days will apply to all Work Permit and S Pass holders hired under Construction accounts.

WHEN IS MY REST DAY?

SUNDAY

- Workers deployed to projects subject to NEA's No Work Rule ^[1]

MONDAY TO SATURDAY (Assigned by MOM)

- Workers deployed to projects not subject to NEA's No Work Rule

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO?

From 28 October 2020 onwards, projects who have approved application for restart will receive notifications from MOM on their rest day.

Look out for MOM's email titled "Staggered Rest Days for Your Workers"

Inform all your contractors of the project assigned rest day

Log on to MOM's Safe@Work system

Verify/Update the rest days for workers deployed full time to project sites

Select a rest day between Monday to Saturday
For workers deployed part-time to construction sites OR not deployed to construction sites

Inform workers on the rest day arrangement

Implement new rest day within one month of notification
