FAQs

1. Can my Planning Team have less than 5 people?

- A. The minimum group size is 5 to promote collective planning and continuity of a gardening group. If you have reasons for having a smaller group, please contact your CIB district manager.

2. Can I submit events that were conducted before 17 April 2026?

- A. Yes, all events between 1 January 2026 and 31 December 2026 are eligible for participation in G&S Initiative 2026.

3. I don't have space to conduct the workshop in the garden. Can I hold it in the RC or void deck?

- A. Any space can be used as long as garden elements are featured during the event (e.g. soil, leaves, pots, cuttings). Do remember to obtain permission from the relevant authorities before using public spaces.

4. Can I submit details of more than one event in the registration proposal?

- A. No, you can only submit one event per form. Please contact the CIB team if you need to submit additional info/ if you'd like to amend the details.

5. How do I recruit participants for my event?

- A. Please refer to the Event Planning Kit for some useful tools on publicity.

FAQs

6. Would I get any support from NParks to organise my events?

A. The first 300 CIB groups to complete the registration form will be entitled to one G&S starter pack to support event preparations. Please refer to details within the registration form on how to collect the starter pack.

7. Can I collect more than one Grow and Share starter pack if I am holding more than one Grow and Share event?

A. No, the first 300 participating CIB groups are only entitled to one Grow and Share starter pack regardless of the number of events submitted.

8. What events are suitable for publicity on Grow and Share site?

A. Only events that are open to the general public will be featured on Grow and Share site. Please also note that Events submitted with less than three weeks lead time may not be featured on Grow and Share site.

9. Will NParks help to manage registrations for my event if it is publicised on the Grow and Share site?

A. No, event registrations will be directed to garden leaders or the point of contact listed in the Grow and Share registration form. NParks will not be managing registrations for events publicised on Grow and Share site.

FAQs

10. How can I view the registration proposal details that I've previously submitted?

A. You can review your submitted details through the email sent via FormSG. If not, you can reach out to the CIB team to extract the event details.

11. If my event took place within the Grow and Share period (between 1 January and 31 December 2026) but I did not submit a registration proposal prior to the event, can I still count it under Grow and Share and be eligible for a G&S appreciation pack if I fill in the details by 11 January 2027?

A. If your gardening group is eligible to participate in G&S, the CIB team will assess your submission and update you on the outcome.

12. There is a limit on the number of pictures I can upload on the post-event reporting form. Can I send it over to my CIB district manager instead?

A. You can consider compiling your pictures into a photo collage before uploading. Please refer to instructions on the Briefing slides for requirements for photo collages. Alternatively, you may contact your CIB district manager.

13. Do I need to include CIB/NParks' logo when publicising my event poster?

A. No, there is no need to include CIB/NParks-related logos on your community event posters. However, we encourage you and your garden leaders/volunteers to wear CIB-related identity items such as the CIB t-shirt and CIB hat while conducting your events.

FAQs

14. What's in the G&S appreciation pack and appreciation pack?

A. The G&S starter pack consists of outreach materials for use at your G&S event. The G&S appreciation pack consists of CIB20 collaterals and gardening products to support your future community gardening activities.

15. Are there any awards or prizes given out for Grow and Share?

A. There will not be any awards given. Instead, all eligible gardening groups will receive one G&S appreciation pack and e-certificate regardless of the number of events organised upon successful completion of the event and submission of the post-event form.

16. Who can I reach out to if I have any other questions?

A. You can approach your CIB district manager or communityinbloom@nparks.gov.sg.
