Select a subject combination to view the eligible post-secondary education pathways.

To explore a different subject combination, deselect the original option before reselecting the new subject combination.

POST-SECONDARY

Post-secondary

Post-secondary education comprises the paths you can take after you complete your secondary school education.

Upon graduation from a post-secondary education institution (PSEI), you can continue to another PSEI or pursue further education, depending on your interests, strengths and learning goals.

Click on the coloured boxes for the further education pathways that you are eligible for. Click again to deselect and choose another.

These pathways are just the beginning. Embrace lifelong learning to grow, hone your skills and shape the future you envision.
