THE PUZZLE PIECE

"Let's piece this jigsaw puzzle together!" says Mum.

"We created this jigsaw puzzle using our family photograph! We'll frame it and give it to Grandma and Grandpa when it's done," shares Dad.

LET'S REFLECT

Dad and Mum suggested making a handmade gift for Grandma and Grandpa together as a family.

 What are some things you enjoy doing with your family?

"Is today a special day?" asks Becky Bunny.

"No, but we can give gifts to our loved ones anytime," Mum replies.

"It'll be fun to do this together. Let's do it now!" Big Brother exclaims.

LET'S REFLECT

There are many ways to show love to your family members, and you can do so anytime, even now.

 What are some ways you can tell or show your family you love them?

As the Bunny Family excitedly prepares to put the jigsaw puzzle together, Big Brother suddenly remembers that it is time for his favourite cartoon!

"May I watch my favourite cartoon first?" Big Brother pleads.

"We can complete this jigsaw puzzle sooner if everyone helps. Besides, we agreed to do this together," Dad replies.

"You can still catch your favourite cartoon tomorrow," Mum reassures Big Brother, who is already nodding in agreement.

Big Brother decides to work on the jigsaw puzzle together with his family.

Just when the Bunny Family is about to finish assembling the jigsaw puzzle, the doorbell rings.

"It's Grandma and Grandpa!" gasps Big Brother.

Becky Bunny leaps up with excitement and rushes to open the door.

Oh no! In her haste, Becky Bunny's eager feet accidentally ruin the nearly completed puzzle.

“Becky Bunny! Look what you’ve done!”
Little Brother exclaims in exasperation.

“You spoilt the gift, so you have to fix it yourself!” Big Brother adds, angrily.

Becky Bunny feels awful. Now, they no longer have a gift for Grandma and Grandpa.

Mum calmly sweeps all the scattered puzzle pieces into a pile.

“It’s alright. Sometimes, accidents happen. We can fix this together,” says Mum to the Bunny siblings.

"I know you all worked hard on this gift. Big Brother even missed his favourite cartoon. So, it's okay to feel frustrated," Mum explains.

"But it's not nice to make others feel worse. After all, Becky Bunny also did her part in working on the jigsaw puzzle. She didn't mean to step on it. Everyone makes mistakes," reminds Dad.

"I'm sorry for shouting at you and hurting your feelings," apologises Big Brother.

"Me too," whispers Little Brother.

"I'm sorry that I ruined the jigsaw puzzle. I should have been more careful," Becky Bunny utters.

“When we make mistakes, we want others to be patient and kind with us,” Mum lovingly points out.

“When people do or say something that disappoints or hurts us, we may feel angry or unhappy. If we aren’t careful, we may end up saying hurtful words that make us and others feel worse,” continues Mum.

“Letting go of these unhappy feelings can make us feel calmer and less likely to hurt others and ourselves. Staying calm and being kind are gifts you can give yourself and others,” adds Dad.

“How do we stay calm?” asks Big Brother.

LET'S REFLECT

Mum shared that hurtful words and actions can cause others to feel unhappy, but staying calm and using kind words can help to lessen someone's unhappiness.

♥ What are some kind words that you have received? How did they help you feel better?

“When you start to feel angry, try to do things that can help you lessen these unhappy feelings,” replies Mum.

“Such as.....

... taking a deep breath,

... singing and dancing to your favourite tune,

... taking a walk around the house,

... drawing or colouring,

... saying kind words to yourself and others,

... or talking to someone you trust.”

“Dad and I are always ready to listen to you. When you feel better, you can talk to the person who did or said something that made you feel unhappy,” adds Mum.

“Listening helps you understand why they acted that way. This may help you feel less upset,” Dad explains.

The Bunny siblings nod in agreement.

LET'S REFLECT

Mum and Dad shared some ways the Bunny siblings can calm down when they are feeling angry. What do you do when you are feeling angry?

 Do you remember when a family member stayed by your side when you were angry? How did you feel?

The Bunny siblings hug and agree to work together on the jigsaw puzzle again.

"We're so proud of you," Dad tells the Bunny siblings.

LET'S REFLECT

The Bunny siblings apologised and forgave one another. Everyone came together to help complete the jigsaw puzzle.

♥ How can you show love to your parents or your siblings after a quarrel?

🧩 How do you support each other and stay together as a family, even after a disagreement?

Grandma and Grandpa offer to help too.

"We can complete this family jigsaw puzzle faster, with more of us working on it together!" says Grandpa encouragingly.

As the Bunny Family is about to complete the jigsaw puzzle, they realise that one piece is missing!

Everyone starts to search high and low for that missing piece.

A while later, Little Brother's stomach starts to rumble.

"I'm hungry," mumbles Little Brother.

"Eating helps me stay calm!"

Little Brother says with a chuckle.

When Little Brother stands up to get a snack from the dining table, Becky Bunny sees the missing puzzle piece stuck on Little Brother.

"It's right there! On Little Brother's pants!" exclaims Becky Bunny with joy.

LET'S REFLECT

Everyone played their part in looking for the missing jigsaw puzzle piece.

-  Can you think of a time when your family came together to complete something? How did you feel?

Little Brother places the final piece into the jigsaw puzzle. Dad helps to fit the completed jigsaw puzzle into the frame.

"This is for you, Grandma and Grandpa," say Big Brother, Becky Bunny and Little Brother in unison.

"Like every piece in this jigsaw puzzle, each one of us plays an important part in this family," says Mum with a smile.

“Yes, indeed! This puzzle is special because it reminds me of how much we love one another. Every time I see it, I’ll remember the fun we had making it together,” Grandpa says proudly.

“And all of you are the greatest gift to us every day. We love you very much!” adds Grandma fondly.
