Intellectual Property Office of Singapore
Registry of Geographical Indications
Circular No. 2/2025: Public Consultation on Proposed Changes to Intellectual Property Regime

Public Consultation on Proposed Changes to Intellectual Property Regime
(Circular No. 2/2025, dated 15 October 2025)

The Intellectual Property Office of Singapore ("IPOS") is seeking public feedback on proposed changes to Singapore's intellectual property ("IP") regime.

Why is IPOS doing this?
In its ongoing commitment to maintaining a world-class IP regime in Singapore, IPOS has identified potential improvements across patents, trade marks, registered designs, plant varieties and geographical indications regimes.

How do I submit my feedback?
Your views are important to us. The public consultation period will run from 15 October 2025 (Wednesday) to 11 November 2025 (Tuesday). We look forward to hearing your feedback via FormSG submission here. Please note that submissions received after 11 November 2025 may not be considered.

Public consultation paper
The consultation paper is organised into 4 sections:

A: Patents (2 sets of questions)
B: Trade Marks (1 set of question)
C: Hearings and Mediation (3 sets of questions)
D: Other Cross-IP Areas (2 sets of questions)

The public consultation paper is available here.

How do I contact IPOS should I have queries on this public consultation?
You are welcome to contact us at IPOS_Consultation@ipos.gov.sg.