Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura

Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura (MUIS), also known as the 'Islamic Religious Council of Singapore', was established in 1968 pursuant to the enactment of the Administration of Muslim Law Act. MUIS is a statutory board under the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth and administers Muslim affairs in Singapore. Among others, MUIS issues halal certificates and regulates the Singapore halal industry. More information on MUIS's roles and responsibilities is available at www.MUIS.gov.sg.

Administration of Muslim Law Act

88A – (1) The Majlis may issue halal certificates in relation to any product, service or activity and regulate the holders of such certificates to ensure that the requirements of the Muslim law are complied with in the production, processing, marketing or display of that product, the provision of that service or the carrying out of that activity.

(2) An application for a halal certificate shall be in such a form as the Majlis may require.

(3) The Majlis may, in issuing a halal certificate, impose such condition as it thinks fit and may at any time vary, remove or add to such condition.

(4) The Majlis may, by notification in the Gazette, specify any certification mark of the Majlis for use in relation to any product, service or activity in respect of which it has issued a halal certificate under subsection (1).

(5) Any person who, without the approval of the Majlis:

- (a) issues a halal certificate in relation to any product, service or activity; or
- (b) uses any specified Halal Certification Mark or any colourable imitation thereof, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(6) The Majlis may, in granting approval to any person to issue any halal certificate or to use any specified Halal Certification Mark, impose such condition as it thinks fit and may at any time vary, remove or add to such condition.

(7) The Majlis may revoke or suspend its approval granted to any person to issue any halal certificate or to use any specified Halal Certification Mark if that person fails to comply with any condition imposed under subsection (6).

(8) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Majlis made under this section may appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

7.8	The company shall ensure that printing of the Halal Certification Mark is conducted in Singapore.	Printing of halal marks
7.9	MUIS reserves the right to suspend or revoke the Halal Endorsement letter with immediate effect upon acknowledgement / written notice to the Halal Endorsement letter holder, in the event that the company is found to: (a) have breached any of the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions; (b) have made or caused to make any false or fraudulent declaration, certification, endorsement or representation, either in writing or otherwise; (c) have its operating licence issued by the relevant food authority suspended; (d) have ceased to carry on its business or threatens to do so; (e) have appointed over all or any part of the assets or undertake a receiver, judicial manager or similar officer; (f) have filed or be the subject of a petition for judicial management; (g) have ceased to do business in the normal course for a continuous period of more than 30 days; (h) have made any arrangement for the benefit of its creditors; (i) have gone into liquidation or bankruptcy, save for the purposes of a genuine amalgamation or reconstruction; and/or (j) have been convicted of any offence of such a nature that, in the opinion of MUIS, is undesirable that the Halal Endorsement holder should continue to hold the Halal Endorsement letter.	Suspension / revocation of endorsement letter
7.10	Upon expiry, suspension or revocation of the Halal Endorsement letter, the endorsement holder shall immediately: (a) cease the display and use of the Halal Endorsement letter; (b) cease all further use of the Halal Certification Mark; (c) cease all publications, advertisements and material bearing the Halal Certification Mark; (d) cease all halal-related claims in relation to the affected products; (e) inform parties using or reproducing the Halal Certification Mark in relation to the affected products to cease usage and reproduction of the mark.	Cessation of use of endorsement letter / mark upon suspension / revocation

	Further or in the alternative, should MUIS's investigation into the breach of the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions be on-going and/or until the endorsement letter holder has made suitable recompense for the breach to the satisfaction of MUIS, the endorsement letter holder shall not submit application for a new Halal Endorsement letter.
7.11	The Endorsement letter holder shall cease to be entitled to use the Halal Endorsement letter and the Halal Certification Mark on expiry of the products belonging to the specified shipment listed in the endorsement letter.	Cessation of use of endorsement letter / certification mark upon expiry
8. OTHER CONDITIONS
8.1	The applicant / endorsement letter holder shall at all times keep MUIS fully indemnified against all claims, damages, expenses or costs (including those asserted by third parties) arising directly or indirectly from any breach by the certificate holder and/or applicant of any provision of the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions or the Halal Endorsement letter or otherwise arising from or in connection with the unlawful use of the Halal Endorsement letter or Halal certification mark or other activities associated therewith by the Halal Endorsement letter holder or applicant.	MUIS to be fully indemnified
8.2	The applicant / company shall accept MUIS's decisions on all Halal related matters as binding. MUIS's records of all matters relating to the endorsement letter and application shall be binding on the Halal Endorsement letter holder or applicant.	MUIS's decisions are binding
8.3	No exercise or failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right power or remedy vested in MUIS under or pursuant to the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions shall constitute a waiver by MUIS of that or any other right power or remedy. The failure of MUIS to insist upon or enforce strict performance by the endorsement letter holder or applicant of any provision of the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions or to exercise any right under the MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment to any extent of MUIS's right to assert or rely upon any such provision or right in that or any other instance; rather, the same shall be and remain in full force and effect.	Non-exercise of power shall not be construed as waiver
8.4	The applicant / certificate holder shall provide consent to forensic audit(s) of all its business records in the event of any breaches of the terms thereof.	Consent to forensic audit
8.5	The applicant / certificate holder shall provide consent and make necessary arrangements for the participation of observers, where applicable.	Consent to participation of observers
8.6	MUIS may at any time, upon written notice to the applicant / endorsement letter holder, vary, remove or add to any one or more of the MUIS Halal Endorsement	Amendments to MUIS Halal Endorsement Conditions

	Conditions. Such change shall take effect from the date stated in the notice, unless otherwise specified in the notice.
8.7	MUIS may review all applications and or approvals for Halal Endorsement letter as it deems necessary.	Review of applications
8.8	MUIS reserves the right to not proceed with the processing of an application, if the nature of that application is deemed sensitive.	Applications deemed sensitive
