

RESOURCE PANEL MEMBERS

CHINESE RESOURCE PANEL

Mr Peter Ong (Head of the Chinese Resource Panel)

Mr Peter Ong started his career in the advertising industry. He joined Lianhe Zaobao, the Chinese flagship newspaper of Singapore Press Holdings as a reporter cum feature writer in 1993 and rose through the ranks to become Associate Editor of the paper in 2013. Mr Ong is currently the paper's Editorial Consultant. Mr Ong graduated from the National University of Singapore with an Honours Degree in Chinese Language. He serves as a committee member at the Chinese Development Assistance Council and is a council member at the National Council Against Drug Abuse.

Ms Carine Ang Ching Hoon

Ms Carine Ang is Head of Radio (Chinese Media Group) at SPH Media. Prior to this, she was the Senior Programme Director and senior presenter of 96.3 Hao FM. She also helmed the evening radio show for UFM100.3. Ms Ang has been a radio presenter since 1997 and has hosted a wide array of programs ranging from current affairs to entertainment. She is also a columnist with Lianhe Zaobao and Shinmin Daily News.

Ms Chen Xiaolin

Ms Chen Xiaolin has been Principal Specialist (Chinese/English) at the Language Services Department of the Parliament of Singapore since 2009, providing simultaneous interpretation (SI) service during parliament sittings. She has also provided SI service at national events such as the National Day Rally since 2015. Prior to that, Ms Chen was with International Enterprise Singapore, in charge of the agency's Chinese communication materials. Ms Chen obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Fudan University, and her Master's Degree in Area Studies (China) from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London.

Mr Cheng Yong Tai

Mr Cheng Yong Tai is the Chief Editor of Chinese News (Singapore) at Mediacorp Pte Ltd, where he oversees local news strategy and coverage across the company's Chinese-language platforms, including digital, radio, television, and social media. He sets editorial direction, ensures high-quality journalism, and drives content innovation to maintain relevance in a rapidly evolving media landscape. He also leads newsroom transformation, focusing on strengthening digital capabilities and expanding audience engagement.

With over 30 years of experience in the industry, primarily in television, Mr Cheng brings extensive expertise across the full spectrum of TV news production. He has led the coverage of major news events, including general elections, national crises, international summits, and other significant developments.

Mr Cheng holds a Master of Arts in Applied Sociology and a Bachelor of Arts in Chinese Studies and Sociology from the National University of Singapore.

Ms Chuang Cher Fang

Ms Chuang Cher Fang is currently the Chief Editor of Chinese News (International) and Platforms at Mediacorp Pte Ltd. She joined Mediacorp in 1998. She was previously a Project Manager at Prestige Art & Antique Pte Ltd from 1996. Prior to that, she was a Project Manager at Raffles Fine Arts Auctioneers Pte Ltd from 1995. Ms Chuang received her BA (Hons) from National University of Singapore in 1995.

Dr Jocelyn Lim Bee Kim

Dr Jocelyn Lim graduated with a bachelor's degree in Chinese Studies and Economics from the National University of Singapore. She holds a master's degree in education from Nanyang Technological University, Singapore, and a doctorate in Education from the University of Western Australia.

Dr Lim currently serves as Deputy Director and Master Specialist in the Mother Tongue Languages (MTL) Branch within the Ministry of Education's (MOE) Curriculum Planning and Development Division. Her core portfolio encompasses the review and implementation of MTL policies, curriculum development, and learning support for students. She provides vetting and translation support for senior management and other MOE divisions, and has led working committees to organise MOE's flagship public event—the MTL Symposium—since its inception in 2012. As Head of Secretariat for the Committee for Promotion of Chinese Language Learning, she collaborates with community partners to organise enrichment programmes and events that promote Chinese language learning amongst students.

Dr Lim's external appointments include serving on the Advisory Panel for the Chinese Degree Programme at the Singapore University of Social Sciences and as a Chinese Reading Advisor for the National Library Board.

Ms Lim Ka Min

Ms Lim Ka Min is the founder of Decipher Words, a content agency offering integrated communication strategies. She holds a Master of Arts in Translation and Interpretation from Nanyang Technological University and a bachelor's in communications (double major in communications and media studies, and public relations) from Murdoch University.

A recipient of the Translation Talent Development Scheme in 2020, she has served as Deputy Head (Marketing Communications) at the Singapore Chinese Orchestra, a Chinese journalist at the Singapore Press Holdings, and a primary school teacher. A passionate volunteer, she also excels as a bilingual copywriter, translator, emcee and proofreader, dedicated to impactful and meaningful communication.

Dr Lin Jingxia

Dr Lin Jingxia is currently an Associate Professor at the School of Humanities and Associate Vice Provost (Student Experience, Wellness & Wellbeing) at Nanyang Technological University. She received her PhD in Chinese Linguistics from Stanford University. Her work examines different varieties of Chinese, including Putonghua, Singapore Mandarin, Chinese dialects in Singapore, and the Wenzhou Wu dialect. It integrates linguistic and computational approaches to the study of lexical and grammatical variation, with implications for communication, education, translation, and AI applications sensitive to regional linguistic variation in multilingual contexts. She also serves on the MOE GCE A-Level H2 Chinese Translation Syllabus Development Committee.

Ms Melody Tan SiYun

Ms Melody Tan SiYun is a Producer-Presenter at 88.3JIA. She shares K-entertainment content in Mandarin on the 88.3JIA K-POP music stream via the Kakee app. She is also a Mandarin voiceover talent.

Prior to this role, she accumulated nearly a decade of experience in Chinese radio news reporting and editing. SiYun joined 88.3JIA's news team as a Chinese broadcast journalist in 2014. Throughout her tenure, she also held the position of deputy editor within the Chinese news team till early 2024.

Assoc Prof Susan Xu

A/P Susan Xu is the Head of the BA in Translation and Interpretation programme at the School of Humanities and Behavioural Sciences, Singapore University of Social Sciences. She has a PhD in Linguistics (with a focus on translation) from National University of Singapore. Her publications include a monograph Translation of Autobiography: Narrating Self, Translating the Other and articles in international journals. She spearheaded the implementation of Certification Examinations for Professional Interpreters and Translators in Singapore.

Mdm Teo Kah Hui

Mdm Teo Kah Hui is the Portfolio Director for Globalize at Keywords Studios and the Director of Women in Games Asia Chapter, with almost two decades of experience in the games industry. She is appointed to the Global Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging Council at Keywords Studios. She serves on the Singapore National Translation Committee Chinese Resource Panel and the Translation Industry Workgroup. She was the Mentorship and Education Manager of Women in Localization Singapore Chapter and served as an Advisor and ExCo of the Singapore Games Association. Kah Hui is also a part-time faculty member at Nanyang Technological University's Master of Arts in Translation and Interpretation Programme, where her research interests are games and transmedia. She holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Chemical) with a minor in Law from National University of Singapore, an EMBA and a Master of Arts in Translation and Interpretation from Nanyang Technological University. She is a certified Project Management Professional and an Accredited Professional Interpreter.

A/P Tham Shiao Wei

A/P Tham Shiao Wei is Associate Professor in the Department of Chinese Studies at the National University of Singapore, where she teaches Chinese linguistics. Her research interests lie mainly in lexical semantics (word meaning) and its effects on sentence structure, with a focus on Mandarin Chinese. Topics she has worked on include the encoding of motion events, change of state encoding, locatives, and result predication. She holds a PhD in Linguistics from Stanford University and taught in the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures at Wellesley College (Wellesley, MA) before returning to Singapore in 2017.

(Information accurate as of 20 May 2026)

RESOURCE PANEL MEMBERS

MALAY RESOURCE PANEL

Dr Mohd Mukhlis Bin Abu Bakar (Head of the Malay Resource Panel)

Dr Mukhlis Abu Bakar is Associate Professor and Head of the Asian Languages and Cultures Academic Group at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University. He has a PhD in Linguistics from the University of Wales, Bangor, UK. He taught at the Department of Malay Studies, National University of Singapore, prior to joining the Institute in 2002. Dr Mukhlis teaches courses in Malay linguistics, discourse analysis, literacy, and bilingual education. His research interests span a number of inter-related fields: language, literacy, bilingualism, and learning at home, in school and in faith settings. He is presently engaged in a number of funded research projects on biliteracy and bilingualism in young children. His service roles include sitting on committees in the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth, Ministry of Digital Development and Information, and Ministry of Education.

Mr Bashir Basalamah

Mr Bashir Basalamah was a staff interpreter of the Judiciary and Parliament of Singapore for 20 years before leaving the civil service to begin a freelance career. He is a NAATI (Australia) Certified Translator for Indonesian and Malay, and a registered translator and interpreter of the Malaysian Institute of Translation and Books (ITBM). He is privileged to serve in various capacities in the Malaysian Translators Association (PPM-MTA), and to be accepted into the American Translators Association

(ATA), the International Association of Conference Interpreters (AIIC), and the Australian Institute of Interpreters and Translators (AUSIT), and as an Associate Member of the Association of Indonesian Translators (HPI). He was a founding member of the Indonesian translation e-group BAHTERA. He holds a Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) in Interpreter Training (Geneva) and teaches Interpreting as an Associate Faculty at the Singapore University of Social Sciences.

Mr Daud Yusof

Mr Daud Yusof is a veteran journalist with the Mediacorp Malay News & Current Affairs department. He is currently a Senior Editor and News Presenter. Daud Yusof is a Malay Language Ambassador and sits in the Malay Language Council of Singapore (MLCS). A graduate of Political Science and Malay Studies from the National University of Singapore (NUS), for 10 years, Daud Yusof was a popular columnist with Manja, a local magazine, writing on various topics of social interest. In his younger days, Daud Yusof had the honour of representing NUS as the team leader in the ASEAN Inter-University Debate Competition (1992).

Ms Khadijah Seron

Ms Khadijah Seron is an adjunct lecturer for various international universities where she teaches media studies, journalism, globalisation, and intercultural communication. She also provides freelance translation and simultaneous interpretation services for various occasions and in the Singapore Parliament, including national events such as the National Day Rally. With a deep interest in current affairs, she also produces info-educational and documentary series as a freelancer. She read Political Science and Philosophy for her Bachelor's degree at the National University of Singapore and has a Master of Arts in Journalism from Cardiff University. Previously, she was a journalist at Mediacorp.

Dr Lim Beng Soon

Associate Professor Lim Beng Soon is the Head of Malay Language and Literature at Singapore University of Social Sciences (SUSS). His major research areas are Pragmatics, in particular Malay and English politeness and spoken discourse, Translation, Contact Languages and Applied Linguistics. Prior to joining SUSS, he was Associate Professor at the Faculty of Languages and Linguistics at the University of Malaya in Kuala Lumpur. He served for several years as language specialist to the South East Asian Ministers of Education Organization's Regional Language Centre in Singapore (SEAMEO RELC). His appointment to SEAMEO RELC required him to conduct courses for language professionals around South East Asia. Before his appointment at SEAMEO RELC, he was an Assistant Professor at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. Dr Lim also sits on the editorial board of the RELC Journal and KEMANUSIAN: The Asian Journal of Humanities. He is an Executive Committee member of the Singapore Association for Applied Linguistics.

Ms Mazlena Bte Ahmad Mazlan

Ms Mazlena Ahmad Mazlan is Director, Corporate Communications at the National Library Board (NLB), where she leads the institution's communications strategy and public engagement. She brings over two decades of experience spanning print and broadcast journalism, documentary production, radio news, and strategic public sector communications.

A multi-award-winning journalist and producer, Ms Mazlena began her career at Berita Harian before rising through the ranks at Mediacorp, where she served as Editor, Malay Current Affairs Unit, News Editor (Mediacorp Radio), and Executive Producer at Caldecott Productions International.

She subsequently led Strategic Communications at MUIS, before serving approximately 13 years as Director of Information at MDDI and Press Secretary to the Minister-in-charge of Muslim Affairs. She is also a member of the Malay Language Council, Singapore, and its Bulan Bahasa Committee.

With expertise in Malay-language media and senior Government communications, Ms Mazlena hopes to contribute meaningfully to the National Translation Committee through its Resource Panel.

Mr Mohd Isa Haron

Mr Mohd Isa Haron serves as a Deputy Director at the Parliament of Singapore, where he leads the Language Services Department responsible for providing simultaneous interpretation in Singapore's four official languages during parliamentary proceedings. As part of his role, he performs simultaneous interpretation during Parliament sittings. He has previously provided interpretation services at key national events, including National Day Rallies and State Funerals. Before joining Parliament, he was with Mediacorp as a broadcast journalist and producer for the nightly news bulletin Berita, current affairs programme, Detik as well as special features like Lensa Ramadan and Aksara. He graduated from the National University of Singapore in 1998.

Ms Nur Adilah Mahbob

Ms Nur Adilah Mahbob is a Deputy News Editor in Berita Harian (BH), covering local news as well as lifestyle content. Previously, as senior correspondent, she covered politics, national policies and Malay/Muslim community affairs. She joined BH in 2010 after graduating from National University of Singapore with a Bachelor of Science (Life Sciences with Honours) degree. She is also a recipient of the Singapore Press Holdings Undergraduate Scholarship in 2006.

Mr Tajudin bin Jaffar

Mr Tajudin Jaffar is the Master Specialist, Malay Language with the Mother Tongue Languages Branch, Curriculum Planning and Development Division, Ministry of Education (MOE). Mr Tajudin has been in the education field for more than 30 years and started teaching Malay Language in Boon Lay Secondary School in 1988. He attained his first Degree from University of Malaya in 1998, majoring in Malay Language Studies, and his Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics from National Institute of Education (NIE), Nanyang Technological University (NTU) in 2004.

Ms Zauwiyah Majid @ Zaza Majid

Ms Zauwiyah Majid (Zaza Majid), a master's graduate in Mass Communications from Nanyang Technological University's Wee Kim Wee School, began her broadcasting journey with Radio Singapore International (RSI) in 2007. As a Duta Bahasa (Malay language ambassador) since 2010, she has made significant contributions to Malay media. Her career spans producing and presenting various current affairs and socio-political programmes at Warna 942, including Segi Tiga and Tanya AP Anda. She served as Ria 897's Assistant Programme Director (2019-2022) and has done numerous voiceovers and endorsements. Currently, she heads Religious Policy & Development (Engagement) at MUIS's Office of the Mufti since January 2023.

(Information accurate as of 20 May 2026)

TAMIL RESOURCE PANEL

Mdm Santhi Sellappan (Head of the Tamil Resource Panel)

Mdm Santhi Sellappan is currently the Centre Director of Umar Pulavar Tamil Language Centre. She had started her career in 1992 as a Tamil Language teacher in a primary school and moved on to teach Tamil and English languages for Secondary School students. She had an opportunity to serve as a Vice-Principal at Juying Primary School for 5 years.

In her former capacity as Deputy Director of Mother Tongue Languages Branch in Curriculum Planning & Development Division at Ministry of Education from 2016 to 2020, she had actively led teams in developing the national Tamil curriculum for Pre-school, Primary, Secondary and Junior College levels. She had obtained her degree in BA in Tamil Language and Literature from Madurai Kamaraj University, India.

She had been the Advisor to the Secretariat of the Tamil Language Learning & Promotion Committee (TLLPC) from 2016 to March 2025 and continues to serve in the committee as a member. She is a member of the Tamil Advisory Panel of National Library Board since 2017. She was also invited to serve in the Tamil Language Collaborative Engagement Committee (TCEC) by Academy of the Singapore Teachers in 2021. Mdm Santhi was appointed as a trustee of Singapore Tamil Teachers' Union in 2021 and is a member of the External Assessment Panel for National Heritage Board since 2022.

Ms Chitra Balagumaran

Ms Chitra Balagumaran joined Mediacorp 25 years ago as Broadcast Journalist. She was then promoted to be a TV News Anchor. As a journalist, she has covered a wide range of national events like General Elections, Presidential Elections and National Day Celebrations. Chitra had the opportunity to also anchor a weekly current affairs program titled Ethiroli on Vasantham. Chitra is currently Senior Editor Tamil News (TV & Radio). Chitra holds a master's degree in English Literature from India.

Mr Danapal Kumar

Mr Danapal Kumar is a veteran Tamil Language Educator with over 25 years of experience in Singapore's education service. Currently, he serves as a Senior Teacher for Tamil Language at Serangoon Secondary School. Throughout his distinguished career, Mr Kumar has contributed significantly to curriculum development and policy work with the Curriculum Planning and Development Division (Tamil Language Unit) of the Ministry of Education and Lee Kuan Yew Fund for Bilingualism Project Office.

As the President of the Singapore Tamil Teachers' Union (STTU), Mr Kumar is a prolific union leader who has tirelessly advocated for the professional development and well-being of Tamil language teachers in Singapore. He has been instrumental in organising World Tamil Teacher Conferences both in Singapore and overseas. He has also led teacher delegations to countries such as the USA, Mauritius, and India for international conferences and learning journeys, broadening the professional horizons of Singaporean educators and deepening cross-cultural exchanges.

He currently serves as a member of various language and cultural advocacy committees including the Tamil Language Council, Tamil Language Learning and Promotion Committee and Indian Culture and Language Advisory Panel.

Mr Kumar's academic background includes a Bachelor's Degree in History and Economics from the National University of Singapore and a Master of Education specialising in Tamil Language from the National Institute of Education.

In recognition of his unwavering dedication to education and his tireless efforts to uplift the Tamil language teaching fraternity, Mr Kumar was honoured with the Comrade of Labour Award in 2024, a testament to his impactful leadership and lifelong service.

Mr Irshath Mohamed

Mr Irshath Mohamed is the News Editor of Tamil Murasu, Singapore's national Tamil daily, where he has rapidly risen through the ranks since joining as a Sub Editor in 2017 and subsequently becoming a journalist in 2018. His incisive and impactful reporting has won multiple accolades, including the prestigious Excellence in Journalism Awards under the English/Malay/Tamil Media Group (EMTM) Journalism Awards, and a nomination for Young Journalist of the Year in 2020.

Beyond the newsroom, Mr Irshath has played a pivotal role in Tamil Murasu's digital transformation journey since 2019, culminating in the launch of its first-ever mobile app in 2023. His leadership extends to the broader Tamil community as the Deputy Secretary of the Tamil Language Council, where he actively contributes to the promotion and development of Tamil language and culture in Singapore. Additionally, he is a member of the Centre for Singapore Tamil Culture, which fosters cultural vibrancy and heritage appreciation.

Mr Irshath's passion for community engagement and language promotion was evident during his undergraduate years at the National University of Singapore (NUS), where he earned a Bachelor of Social Sciences (Hons) in Political Science and History. At NUS, he was an active member of the Tamil Language Society, playing key roles in major initiatives such as the first-ever World Tamil Youth Conference in 2012, Sangae Muzhangu in 2013, and the Singapore Tamil Youth Conference in 2014 presided over by former President S R Nathan.

For his outstanding leadership and cultural contributions, Mr Irshath was awarded the NUS Silver Award for Leadership in 2015. Mr Irshath also holds a Master of Science in Communications Management from Singapore Management University.

Mr K Ramamoorthy, JP, BBM

Mr K Ramamoorthy is a highly respected grassroots and community leader with more than 25 years of dedicated service to the Indian community and the broader Singapore society. He currently serves as a Senior Lecturer at the School of Hospitality, Republic Polytechnic, where he shares his extensive professional expertise and passion for education.

Mr Ramamoorthy's long-standing commitment to community development is evident through his leadership roles in numerous organisations. He is the Patron and Past Chairman (2013–2025) of the People's Association Narpani Pearavai, the umbrella body representing 99 Indian Activity Executive Committees (IAECs) across community clubs and centres in Singapore. Under his leadership, the Narpani Pearavai strengthened its role in fostering social cohesion, cultural vibrancy, and community engagement among Indian Singaporeans.

His contributions extend to the preservation and promotion of Indian heritage and languages. He also serves on the Tamil Promotion Committee and Lee Kuan Yew Fund for Bilingualism, supporting initiatives that strengthen bilingual competencies across communities. In the past, he has served as a member of Tamil Language Council (2013-2020) and Singapore Indian Development Association Executive Committee (2015-2023).

Recognising his outstanding contributions to society, Mr Ramamoorthy has been honoured with several prestigious awards, including the Public Service Medal (PBM) in 2015 and the Public Service Star (BBM) in 2020. In 2025, he was reappointed as a Justice of the Peace (JP), further reflecting his stature as a trusted community leader and mediator.

Ms Kavitha Ramu

Ms Kavitha Ramu is a Senior Producer with CNA's Current Affairs team, where she oversees all aspects of research and production of Tamil documentaries and programmes. She also double hats as a Studio Director, having directed live productions, including the National Day Rally shows and 'Ask the Finance Minister' Budget specials.

Throughout her tenure at Mediacorp, Kavitha has demonstrated expertise in multiple roles. She notably contributed to the Tamil News & Current Affairs division as a Senior Producer/Reporter/Presenter. In this capacity, she reported on breaking news, national events such as the General Elections and National Day Parades, and community events. Her involvement in the Tamil Current Affairs program, Ethiroli, allowed her to explore and bring to light issues impacting the Indian community extensively.

Kavitha holds a Master's degree in Mass Communication from Nanyang Technological University.

Ms Bhavani Selva Kumar

Ms Bhavani Selva Kumar is the Deputy Director (Partnership & Programmes) at the Founders' Memorial, National Heritage Board, bringing forward her passion for heritage, community engagement, and multicultural storytelling. Previously, she served as General Manager of the Indian Heritage Centre (IHC), transforming it into Singapore's leading cultural focal point for the Indian community.

Before entering the heritage sector, Bhavani dedicated over 20 years to education. She began as a Tamil Language Teacher and later led ICT as Head of Department at East Coast Primary School. Subsequently, she transitioned to the Ministry of Education's Mother Tongue Languages Branch as Assistant Director and spearheaded the Secretariat of the Tamil Language Learning and Promotion Committee, where she continues to serve as a member.

In recognition of her outstanding public service, Bhavani was conferred the Public Administration Medal (Bronze) in the 2023 National Day Awards. In 2025, she received the esteemed A N Maideen Award from the Singapore Kadayanallur Muslim League for her contributions to heritage and intercultural harmony.

She is also a valued Member of the Indian Culture & Language Advisory Panel under the People's Association, School Advisory Committee of Greendale Primary School and Advisory Board of Anandha Traditional Arts and Music Ltd, a non-profit arts organisation.

Through her roles at IHC and now at the Founders' Memorial, Bhavani has championed a range of community-driven programmes, exhibitions, and collaborations. She continues to curate partnerships and narratives that reflect Singapore's diverse heritage tapestry.

Ms Rageswari Suppiah

Ms Rageswari Suppiah is the Language Lead of the Language Resources at the Supreme Court, where she provides effective leadership in managing and supervising the Indian Interpreters' Section. She ensures the quality and timely delivery of interpretation and translation services for the Supreme Court, serving lawyers, accused persons, victims, witnesses, and other parties involved in court proceedings. In addition, she oversees the competency and performance of Indian interpreters through comprehensive training and development programs, supporting the Supreme Court's mission to superintend the administration of justice.

Ms Rageswari started her career in 1992 as a Certified Court Interpreter at Subordinate Courts (now known as the State Courts) and joined the Supreme Court in 2006. With over 30 years of experience across both the Subordinate Courts and the Supreme Court, she has interpreted in a wide range of court proceedings, demonstrating her expertise and commitment to upholding the standards of judicial interpretation.

Dr Saravanan Shanmugam

Dr Saravanan Shanmugam is a Medical Officer working at various restructured hospitals under MOH Holdings. Having graduated from the National University of Singapore's Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, he has been actively involved in various public healthcare projects, while at the same time pursuing his passion for Tamil language, through theatre and public speaking. He has also trained students at workshops for these skills, with a firm will to pass on the baton in terms of language proficiency.

Mrs Thiilagah Rajandra

Mrs Thiilagah Rajandra, Tamil Language Coordinator at St. Margaret's School (Secondary), brings 30 years of expertise as a Tamil Language Educator. Her experience includes teaching both primary and secondary school students as well as serving as a Teaching Fellow at the National Institute of Education (NIE), Nanyang Technological University's (NTU) Asian Languages and Cultures Department. Born and raised in Singapore, she has benefitted from Singapore's bilingual education and is passionate about teaching the Tamil language. She graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Tamil Language and Literature from Madurai Kamaraj University, India and later pursued her Master's in Education at NIE/NTU. Alongside her academic journey, she has actively contributed to organising impactful tuition projects and reading workshops.

(Information accurate as of 20 May 2026)