

The S.U.R.E. Prove It! Contest 2021 is organised by the National Library Board and aims to equip students with information literacy skills in the digital age and apply it to current affairs consumed online. Through their knowledge and creativity, teams will create a short video about ways to apply the S.U.R.E. steps and promote the video in their respective schools to become effective advocates of information literacy.

This contest is open to all lower secondary students, and each school can register one team of four students.

Phase 1

24 May - 28 May

- Attend a one-hour digital workshop and briefing for the contest
- Learn about the importance of news and information discernment in the digital age, featuring Mr Nicholas Fang (Black Dot Research) and Mr Edson Tandoc Jr (NTU)

Phase 2

31 May - 1 Jul

- Create a video (1-minute) about ways to apply the S.U.R.E. steps in discerning online information and current affairs
- Details and guidelines on the contest and video will be sent upon registration

Phase 3

5 Jul - 16 Jul

- Raise awareness of your video by promoting it in school

21 Jul - Submission

4 Aug

- Announcement of winners and award ceremony (via Zoom)
