

Annex A – Pre-University Scholarships and Award available for application in TJC

S/N	Name of Scholarship	Owner Agency	Brief Details	Eligibility & Requirements	Submission Window	TJC Teacher IC	More Information
1.	Chinese Language Elective Programme Scholarship (CLES)	MOE	The Chinese Language Elective Programme Scholarships are awarded in Pre-University 1 to students admitted to the Chinese Language Elective Programme (CLEP). It is awarded for 2 years. The award covers an allowance of $1,000 and school fees based on Singapore Citizen's rates less any subsidies, subject to an annual cap of $2,400, as long as the student meets the renewal criteria and remains enrolled in the Chinese Language Elective Programme (CLEP). Only Singapore Citizens are eligible for the CLES.	Singapore Citizens who: - Are enrolled in the CLEP. - Have done consistently well in school and obtained outstanding results in their GCE O-Level examinations or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment. - Obtained at least an A2 in Chinese, B3 in Higher Chinese, or B4 in Higher Chinese with B3 in Chinese Literature or equivalent. - Have good co-curricular activities record. - Have good conduct record. Scholarship recipients must: - Offer H2 Chinese Language and Literature. - Participate in all compulsory CLEP activities such as camp, Overseas Immersion Programme and Literary Lecture Series. - Not be concurrent recipients of any other MOE scholarships.	Applications are now open till 25 February 2026 (Wednesday).	Mr Chow Chee Wai chow_chee_wai@moe.edu.sg	 https://www.moe.gov.sg/financial-matters/awards-scholarships/programme-scholarships-pre-u/chinese-language-elective-scholarship
2.	Engineering & Tech Programme Scholarship (ETPS)	MOE	The Engineering and Tech Programme Scholarships are awarded to Pre-University students who have strong foundations in mathematics and science, with an inclination towards applied, interdisciplinary and hands-on learning. It is awarded for 2 years. The award covers an annual allowance of $1,000 and school fees based on Singapore Citizen's rates less any subsidies, subject to an annual cap of $2,400, as long as	Singapore Citizens who: - Have done consistently well in school and obtained outstanding results in mathematics and science subjects (e.g. at least A2 for a mathematics and a science subject) at the GCE O-level examinations or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment. - Have good co-curricular activities record, particularly in STEM areas. - Have good conduct record.	Applications are now open till 25 February 2026 (Wednesday).	Mrs Goh Siew Choon ting_siew_choon@moe.edu.sg	 https://www.moe.gov.sg/financial-matters/awards-scholarships/programme-scholarships-pre-u/engineering-and-tech-programme-scholarship

			the student meets the renewal criteria and remains enrolled in ETPS. Only Singapore Citizens are eligible.	Scholarship recipients must: • Offer H2 Mathematics and at least one of the following subjects: - o H2 Physics - o H2 Computing - o H2 Further Mathematics • Participate in the 1-week ETPS Flagship STEM workshop to be conducted between late-December of first year and mid-January of second year of scholarship. • Participate in a work attachment/ internship programme in June or December of second year of scholarship. • Not be concurrent recipients of any other MOE scholarships. Scholarship recipients will also be strongly encouraged to participate in a hands-on engineering-related project or learning activity of student's choice within the duration of the scholarship. Some examples include participation in the Engineering Innovation Challenge (EIC), Singapore Science and Engineering Fair (SSEF) or equivalent.			ps-pre-u/engineering-and-tech-programme-scholarship
3.	Humanities Scholarship and Programme (HSP)	MOE	The Humanities Scholarships are offered by MOE to encourage outstanding students to study the Humanities at the Pre-University level under the Temasek Humanities Programme (THP). It is awarded for 2 years. The award covers an allowance of $1,000 and school fees based on Singapore Citizen's rates less any subsidies, subject to an annual cap of $2,400, as long as the student meets the renewal criteria and remains enrolled in the HSP. Only Singapore Citizens are eligible.	Singapore Citizens who: • Are enrolled in the HSP. • Have done consistently well in school and obtained outstanding results in their GCE O-Level examinations or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment. • Obtained at least a B3 in English Language or equivalent. • Have good co-curricular activities record. • Have good conduct record. Scholarship recipients must: • H1 subjects (compulsory):	For JAE students only: Applications for the Humanities Scholarships are now open till 25 February 2026 (Wednesday). Students interested in the HS should first apply for the THP.	Ms Florence Ang ang_wan_yu_florence@moe.edu.sg	 https://www.temasek-jtc.edu.sg/pre-u/engineering-and-tech-programme-scholarship

				○ General Paper ○ Mother Tongue Language (Please note that this requirement is not compulsory if you have obtained a D7 or better in your Higher Mother Tongue Language at GCE O-Level examinations.) ○ Project Work ● First H2 subject (compulsory) ○ Literature in English ● Second H2 subject (select one from the following): ○ Economics ○ Geography ○ History ● Third H2 subject (select one from the following, pending timetable availability): ○ Any one of the second H2 subjects ○ Knowledge and Inquiry (Knowledge & Inquiry should be offered as one of 4 H2 subjects.) ○ Japanese ○ French ○ German ○ Music ○ Art ● A contrasting subject: Mathematics Requirements to note: All HS recipients will be in the Temasek Humanities Programme (THP). Students interested in the HS should first apply for the THP. Scholars must not be concurrent recipients of any other MOE scholarships.
--	--	--	--	---	--	--	--

4.	Music Elective Scholarship (MES)	MOE	The Music Elective Scholarships are awarded in Pre-University 1 to students admitted to the Music Elective Programme (MEP). It is offered by MOE to encourage academically able and talented students in Music, who have already studied the relevant subject up to O-level to pursue the subject at H2 level at the respective centres under the MEP. It is awarded for 2 years. The award covers an allowance of $1,000 and school fees based on Singapore Citizen's rates less any subsidies, subject to an annual cap of $2,400, as long as the student meets the renewal criteria and remains enrolled in the MEP. Only Singapore Citizens are eligible.	Singapore Citizens who: • Are enrolled in MEP. • Have done consistently well in school and obtained outstanding results in their GCE O-Level examinations or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment. • Obtain at least an A2 in Higher Music or Music in their GCE O-Level examinations or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment OR possess a good music portfolio with documentation of active involvement in music-related activities within or outside of school. • Have good co-curricular activities record. • Have good conduct record. Scholarship recipients must: • Offer H2 and H3 Music. • Participate in MEP and MES activities. • Not be concurrent recipients of any other MOE scholarships.	Applications are now open till 25 February 2026 (Wednesday). Nominees are to submit links to their portfolios to their teacher-in-charge by 26 March 2026 (Thursday).	Dr Gary Laycock laycock_eng_v@mo.edu.sg	 https://www.moe.gov.sg/financial-matters/awards-scholarships/programme-scholarships-pre-u/music-elective-scholarship
5.	MOE Pre-University Scholarship	MOE	The MOE Pre-University Scholarships are offered by MOE to top Pre-University 1 students who have achieved outstanding academic results and excelled in co-curricular and other activities. It is awarded for 2 years. The award covers an annual allowance of $750 and school fees based on Singapore Citizen's rates less any subsidies, subject to annual cap of $2,400, as long as the student meets the renewal criteria.	Singapore Citizens, or non-Citizens with at least 1 parent who is a Singapore Citizen, who: • Have done consistently well in school and obtained an aggregate score of 8 points or less (without bonus points deduction) in their GCE O-Level examinations for English and Higher Mother Tongue, or Mother Tongue and 5 relevant subjects as in the Pre-University admission criteria, or equivalent based on the school's internal assessment. • Have good co-curricular activities record. • Have good conduct record.	For JAE students only: Applications are now open till 25 February 2026 (Wednesday).	Ms Chew Yng Kit chew_yng_kit@mo.edu.sg Ms Lim Xiao Qi xiao_qi_lim@mo.edu.sg	 https://www.moe.gov.sg/financial-matters/awards-scholarships/moe-pre-u-scholarship

				Not concurrent recipients of any other MOE scholarships.
6.	DSTA Junior College Scholarship	DSTA	The DSTA JC Scholarship aims to recognise and motivate students who have a passion for Engineering, Digital Technology and Cybersecurity careers in defence. It entails a scholarship award of $2,000. Allowance of $1,000 will be provided per year, tenable for two years. It also includes plenty of opportunities to participate in activities and an internship with DSTA. The award carries no bond.	Singapore Citizens who: - Are first-year Junior College or equivalent Integrated Programme (IP) student in the science stream. - Have good academic and CCA track records. - Are passionate about science and technology.	Applications are now open till 23 February 2026 (Monday).	Mrs Gan Miao Hui tng_miaohui@moe.edu.sg Ms Tan Yi Jie tan_yi_jie@moe.edu.sg	 https://go.gov.sg/dstascholarships
7.	CSIT Computing Scholarship	CSIT	The CSIT Computing Scholarship aims to foster interest and develop competencies in computing amongst students in Junior Colleges (JC) and Integrated Programmes (IP). As the leading agency within MINDEF for applied research and product development, CSIT believes in investing in the development of the next generation of tech talent as part of Singapore's digital transformation strategy. CSIT hopes that through their partnership with JCs and IP schools, students will be encouraged to pursue further education and a career in technology. The scholarship includes an annual allowance of $1,000, tenable for two years, a learning allowance of $1,000 and an experiential journey at CSIT. It is bond-free.	Singapore Citizens who: - Are first-year Junior College or equivalent Integrated Programme (IP) student enrolled in H2 Computing. - Are passionate about computing and technology. - Have obtained excellent GCE 'O' Levels results or equivalent. Requirements to note: - Students are required to maintain good conduct as befitting of a government scholarship holder. - Students must not be a recipient of other scholarships unless approved by CSIT.	Tentatively Term 2 2026	Mr Ngoh Kheng Kiat ngoh_kheng_kiat@moe.edu.sg Mr Chew Yi Yang chew_yi_yang@moe.edu.sg	Will be released to JC1 H2 Computing students during application window. Visit https://www.csit.gov.sg/join-us/csit-computing-scholarship for more details.
8.	Singapore Police Force Book Prize	SPF	The Singapore Police Force (SPF) Book Prize is awarded to students in recognition of their academic excellence and stellar co-curricular achievements.	Singapore Citizens or Permanent Residents intending to take up citizenship who: Are Junior College Year 1 students (as of Oct 2025).	Applications are open till 31 January 2026 (Saturday).	Ms Niki Lee lee_xiuli@moe.edu.sg	Released on Matrix.

			The award aims to motivate students in their continued pursuit of excellence in school and affirms the SPF's commitment towards the holistic development of students as future leaders of Singapore. Winners of the SPF Book Prize will enjoy: • A cash prize of $2,500. • Exclusive invitations to attend SPF scholarship engagement events to find out more about SPF scholarships. • Internship opportunities to learn more about a Policing career. • Opportunities to be considered for SPF scholarship.	• Possess academic excellence and leadership qualities. • Are keen in contributing towards a safe and secure Singapore.			Visit https://www.police.gov.sg/Join-Us/Police-Officer/Scholarships-and-Awards#acc-4-1 for more details.
9.	SAF Young Leader Award	Mindef Scholarship Centre	The SAF Young Leader Award (SYLA) recognises individuals with excellent academic achievements and outstanding CCA performance. The award is an opportunity for students who demonstrate leadership potential and a passion for defence-related matters to gain early exposure to MINDEF/SAF. Recipients of the award will enjoy: • $2,500 cash award. • Exclusive opportunities to attend MINDEF/SAF programmes, scholarship talks and engagement activities to understand the career prospects in MINDEF/SAF. • A scholarship interview* for overseas studies upon application (*male recipients need to be enlisted into SAF in	Singapore Citizens or Permanent Residents intending to take up citizenship who: • Are Junior College Year 1 students (as of 2025). • Have outstanding academic performance. • Are positive and inspiring role models in their CCAs. • Are passionate about defence-related issues.	Applications are open till 8 February 2026 (Sunday).	Ms Niki Lee lee_xiuli@moe.edu.sg	Released on Matrix. Visit https://www.mindef.gov.sg/join-us/scholarships-and-sponsorships/scholarships/syla-application/ for more details. order to be considered for military scholarships).

10.	Temasek Xcel	TJC	A prestigious College-based Programme for outstanding JC1 students in sports and performing arts.	Students are nominated by teachers based on the following considerations: Considerations (Sports): • In the National/Youth Team. • In the Combined Schools Team. • A key player of a team and attained top 4 placing at National Schools competition. • Has attained individual top 4 placing at National Schools competition or of higher level. • Represented TJC at the National Schools Games and attained very good results. Considerations (Performing Arts): • Part of the Singapore Youth Orchestra / Ensemble. • A key performer or held a leadership position in a performing arts CCA during Upper Sec years in their secondary school. • Performing arts CCA group achieved a Distinction Award in the SYF. • The group participated in external competitions (local or international) and obtained the top 3 positions. Additional Considerations: • Student should hold a leadership position in the CCA. • Recipient must stay in the CCA while they are in TJC.	Students can approach their CCA teachers in Term 3.	Mr Irwan Wijaya irwan_wijaya_zainal@moe.edu.sg	